BOOST WAR WORK FUND

Greek Community Holds
Parade and Mass Meeting
—War Fund Collections

The members of the local Greek community held an interesting and enthusiastic meeting in favor of the United War Work campaign last evening. The assembly, which was presided over by Principal Peter Soudis of the Greek parochial school, being held in the basement of the church in Jefferson street. There were about 200 men and women at the meeting and before the gathering took place at the church a street parade through the district was held, the marchers being headed by the Greek Helene band.

The principal speaker at the meeting was Mesrop Newton Agapetian, who with his wife is assisting in the great drive of the War Work campaign. Mr. Agapetian was born in Constantinople and is a graduate of Robert college, also of the University of Geneva, Switzerland, and Columbia, New York. After leaving college he was a member of the Seventh regiment, New York. For 10 years he served in the Persian army; fought in the Caucasus and in Persia, where he rose to the rank of major general. He was aide-de-camp to the shah of Persia between 1895 and 1905 and came to America as secretary of the Persian embassy. When the war broke out he went to Russia with his wife, who was a Red Cross nurse, and they with a great number of other volunteers, worked until the revolution disorganized the Russian army. Then they returned to America. They are now working for the Red Cross Security league and the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief. He has been awarded a Russian war cross and several other foreign orders and decorations.

Others who spoke were Dr. G. Generalis, Corp. Spanos from Camp Devens and Principal John J. Mahoney of the Normal school. In the course of the meeting the president of the community, Costas Vargapopoulos, announced that the organization he represented had voted $100 toward the fund, and before the meeting was brought to a close collections amounting to about $250 were taken up. The committee in charge of the Greek end of the campaign, and which was responsible for the success of last evening's meeting is composed of the following: G. Glavis, Charles Chipowias, P. Marcopoulos and E. G. Sophos.

MILLION STARVING TO DEATH IN AUSTRIA

ITALIAN HEADQUARTERS, Tuesday, Nov. 12. (By the Associated Press.)—G. D. McLeod of Montreal, an aviator, and C. M. Young of Des Moines, who were taken prisoner by the Austrians during the Italian campaign, have been released and have reached the Italian lines. They bring direct news of conditions in the interior of Austria, having traveled from Salzburg, near Vienna, after being liberated.

"Horrible food conditions prevail in Austria," said McLeod today, "and it is quite possible that a million persons will die there this winter from lack of food, weakness and disease. The country is quiet now, but another Russia may grow out of the situation as soon as the troops returning from the front discover that the end of the war has not brought relief."

"Scenes along the railways are like those on the battlefield. We saw bodies scattered here and there as a result of men crowding on the tops of trains and being swept off by tunnels. There were also bodies of wounded men who had been taken from the Red Cross cars and left to die. Terrible sanitary conditions prevail in little towns filled with returning soldiers."

JITNEY MEN BEFORE LICENSE BOARD

A regular meeting of the license commission was held last evening and routine business was transacted. Thirteen jitney drivers, who operate between Lowell and Lawrence, appeared before the commission to answer to complaints charging them with overcrowding their automobiles. The drivers were represented by Frederick S. Harvey who contended that under a recent ordinance of the municipal council passed at the request of the jitney drivers, they should be given another chance. He said the ordinance puts it up to the license commission whether or not the jitneys may carry more passengers than the manufacturers' rating calls for. In order that the commission may study the new ordinance, the hearing was postponed until next Tuesday and in the meantime all the cars will be inspected by the chief of police to test the claims of the drivers that they can comfortably carry more passengers than the manufacturers' rating calls for.

The jitney drivers who appeared before the commission were as follows: Alfred H. Hall, Henry Shaw, Chas. A. Kuhnert, George J. Bach, Nicholas Tanous, Wilfred J. Gannon, George LaHamm, John G. H. Jones, Nicholas Antonis, Joseph A. Tesler, John J. Perry, Frank Kyriacopoulos and Percy E. Leach.

Only three licenses were acted upon. The common victrolite license of the Y.W.C.A., 50 John street, was granted, as was the express license of Achille LeFebvre, 229 Middlesex street. The transfer of the billiard and pool license of Monmouth and Georgopoulos, 414 Suffolk street, was granted, to be moved to 69 Dammer street.

OLD LADIES HOME
On Tuesday afternoon the annual meeting of the corporation of the Old Ladies home was held, at which the reports were read by the treasurer, E. Edward Gibson, and Miss Edith B. Russell, treasurer of the May Day fund. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. E. T. Shaw; vice president, Mrs. A. H. Russell; second vice president, Miss Edith B. Russell; secretary, Miss Josephine B. Russell; treasurer, E. Edward Gibson; honorary treasurer, Mrs. George F. Richardson; trustees, Mrs. T. E. Parker, Mrs. L. S. Fox, Mrs. E. T. Shaw, Miss Josephine B. Russell, Mrs. Josephine W. May, George A. May, A. G. Pollard, Clarence H. Nelson, Hon. John J. Rogers and Frank Hapsett.

SAYS THE ONLY GOOD GERMANS ARE DEAD

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—Stephane Lausanne, editor of the Paris Matin, and a member of the French high commission, in an address here yesterday on "How France Understands Peace," deprecated a too generous attitude toward the German people. "Let us remain strong," he declared, "for strength is the only thing Germany understands. Let us not be too generous, for sometimes generosity is understood as weakness. It is ridiculous to speak of us as 'the good German people.' The people who shouted with glee in the streets of Berlin when the Lusitania was sunk with little American children."

The German socialists are noisy now. They were silent when Belgium was invaded, when the Brest-Litovsk treaty was signed. Let them be silent now.

"There are no 'good German people' except those that are dead," Mr. Lausanne declared vehemently. He continued: "We have faced the most terrible war machine that the world has ever known. Now they have heard the death rattle in their own throats. If we do not take guarantees our blood shall have been shed in vain. It is not our victory nor the victory of any nation, but it is the victory of an ideal. It must be—it shall be—the victory of justice."

Must Return Loot

Mr. Lausanne declared that there could be no reparation for the extermination of millions of the killing of women and children, but that Germany must restore the art collections stolen from private homes and public buildings in northern France and Belgium and the machinery and other equipment looted from French and Belgian factories.

The editor derided the complaint of Dr. Solf, the German foreign secretary, as to the severity of the armistice terms in demanding the giving up by Germany of 1200 locomotives and 150,000 cars. All of these, he declared, were a part of the railway equipment that "was stolen in France and Belgium."

"All occupied cities," said Mr. Lausanne, "have had to pay enormous indemnities amounting to more than $3,000,000,000. All of this money must be returned. I speak also of 350,000 houses destroyed, all of which will require the services of 100,000 men for 20 years to rebuild. These 100,000 men must be furnished by the burners and destroyers. Restitution of all provinces occupied by the Germans, whether for 48 years or 48 months, is no longer a necessity. Flanders is no different from Alsace-Lorraine."

"When your boys arrived in Chateau-Thierry," went on the speaker, "they found packages wrapped and addressed to the 'good people' of Germany, which contained things stolen from homes in that French city." The speaker then read extracts from two letters sent him by the French general staff, written by German mothers to their sons, which thanked the latter for sending "such things as they had stolen."

One letter said "that 35 packages had been received and that the sender would receive the 'golden' of Alsace-Lorraine."

Mr. Lausanne, discussing Alsace-

DANGER AFTER SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIPPE

How it Can Be Avoided and Treated. Simple Rules to Be Followed. No Occasion for Panic

No need of anyone being afraid of the after effects and slow recovery from Spanish influenza, hard colds or Grippe, if they will use common sense and start in building up their health and strength the right way.

"The main thing is to get the blood rich, red, and pure, so it can carry life-giving oxygen and strength to every part of the body. Impure blood is the cause of so many slow recoveries and set-backs."

Doctors say: "Get the blood right and the rest is easy, that nine-tenths of all sickness is due to lack of iron and phosphates; the healthy strong, vigorous man or woman's blood is always loaded with these two life-giving elements."

Physicians also claim with fresh air and nourishing food nothing equals Phosphated Treh as a blood tonic and health builder. Phosphat-ed Iron takes hold from the first dose. Results are seen and felt; strength returns, food digests, appetite picks up, sleep is restful, there is a color in the cheeks and a sparkle to the eye that only blood charged with iron and phosphates can give.

It is the duty of everyone who has had Spanish influenza, Grippe or a hard cold to build up their system with nature's tonic, Phosphated Iron. It sure is health protection. Safety first. The results will repay you many times. Give yourself a show. Special notice: To insure doctors and their patients getting the genuine Phosphated Iron, have put in capsules. Do not take pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

ginal street, with an aggregate loss estimated at $35,000. The stores of J. J. McCormick and W. D. Boyd, the storehouse of Osgood-Lindsey Co., the poolroom and barber shop of S. L. Jensen, the store and dwelling of S. L. Leach and the residence of Mrs. Lindscott were burned.

$300,000 LOSS BY FIRE

Entire Toledo Business Block

Destroyed—100 Guests

Flee in Nightclothes

TOLEDO, Ohio, Nov. 14.—One entire business block including the Hotel Fetter in the center of upper Sandusky, was destroyed by fire early today. The 100 or more guests in the hotel barely escaped minus all of their belongings. Eight firemen were injured when caught beneath falling walls. Besides the hotel, a restaurant, a barber shop, a saloon, two military stores and a harness shop were burned. The loss was about $300,000.

THREE ALARM FIRE

Spectacular Blaze in Boston

Business District Caused

$50,000 Loss

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—A property loss that may exceed $50,000 was caused by a three-alarm fire which was discovered shortly before 9 o'clock last night in the Wales building, 110 Summer street.

The fire was one of the most spectacular in the downtown section of this city for many months and must have been smoldering for some time before it was discovered.

When Chief McDonough and the first companies reached the building, the flames were rolling through an airwell in the center of the building nearly 100 feet above the roof and could be seen for a long distance.

The building is occupied by nearly a score of different firms, the majority of whom deal in boots and shoes, leather or woollens, and those which were not gutted by fire suffered a water and smoke loss.

Among the firms that suffered damage are Boston Leather company, Bresnahan & Kelleher Shoe company, W. P. Soule & Co., C. H. Beach, E. H. Jensen & Co., Sullivan McCloskey Shoe company, Minor Hooper company, Harry L. Ripley and the L. B. Evans company.

A heavy loss was sustained by Stuenkel's Lunch company.

All direct traffic to the South station was tied up for more than an hour and the trolley wires were cut by the emergency crew of the Boston Elevated company, to allow the firemen to raise their ladders and water towers.

200 DRIVEN OUT BY FIRE

AT BRIGHTON

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—More than 200 persons fled through smoke-filled hallways and down fire escapes in thin air today when fire was discovered in Strathford hall, in the Brighton district. The building contained 50 apartments and was owned by Fred W. Norris. All of the occupants were asleep when the fire was discovered by a milkman. The flames started in the shaft and burned up through the five stories to the roof doing damage estimated at $40,000. Firemen rescued a number of persons including several who were ill.

INFLUENZA GERMS

BY VALENTINE MOTT PIERCE, M. D.

Influenza is produced by a bacillus or germ coming chiefly from discharges from the nose, throat, and lungs of the person who coughs, sneezes, or spits. The person attacked feels chilly, develops a high temperature—usually accompanied by headache and "ache all over"—as it is usually described.

If you have the above symptoms get into bed as quickly as possible, after a hot mustard foot-bath. Take a good purgative, such as one made up of May-apple, leaves of aloe, root of jalap, and sold in every drug store as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Then surround yourself with hot water bottles. It is a fact mentioned by physicians of the largest experience that the effort on the part of nature to throw off the poisons results sometimes in inflammation of the kidneys. It is therefore very important to assist nature in eliminating the toxins (poisons) from the body thru the bowels, skin and kidneys. Not only should this be carefully attended to by the sick, but by the person who wishes to ward off an attack. A new kidney remedy called "Anuric" (anti-uric) can be obtained of the druggist. This "Anuric" flushes the bladder and kidneys and throws off the poisons (toxins), and should be taken with hot water or hot lemonade. Clear the nose with some good antiseptic spray or Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. It is, of course, unnecessary for me to emphasize this, keep strong and healthy, fear neither germ nor German, and observe the three C's: A Clean skin, Clean bowels, Clean nose and mouth and you have half won the battle.

RIALTO IS NEWEST SHOP

Prices and Styles to Suit
Lowell Women at Central Street Store

Even in spite of two days coming unexpectedly as holidays this week, the new Rialto cloak and suit store at 117-119 Central street finds it has been doing a very much larger volume of business than it had expected would be the case the first week, a time most generally set aside by the management of such stores as "get acquainted week."

Perhaps the experience of the Rialto store has been different in this respect this week owing to the fact that the owners have been fortunate enough to secure as manager Fred J. Nevery, who already has a large acquaintance-ship among Lowell shoppers of the very best taste, from the fact that for five and a half years he has been giving the best of service in merchandising at the Cherry & Webb store in Lowell.

The Rialto means to maintain itself as a strictly high grade suit and cloak house and its interior arrangement of wardrobe cases, all of solid mahogany, and its display racks for garments, remind the shopper more of the high class Boston and New York stores than of the ordinary store selling wares of this sort.

Besides having a New York representative who has Paris connections and from whom the store is to receive its latest styled shipments of women's wearing apparel, one of the particularly strong points emphasized by the manager in his preliminary announcements is, that this store is going to make it an object for the shopper with ready cash in her hand, to come and replenish her wardrobe at this store.

Doing a strictly cash business, the store aims to get the merchandising advantages of many and very quick turnovers of stock which will mean that the greater volume of business, the larger the profits, with resultant good values to the customer in price and quality, added to the fact that, the more often a stock of cloaks and suits is turned over, the better the styles to be found in such a store.

The latter left for Garden City, Long Island, Monday morning. The first five mentioned young men were scheduled to leave for Camp Sevier, S. C., on Tuesday. The party proved a most enjoyable affair.

Albert Edmund Brown, the man who brought community singing to its present popularity in Lowell went to Camp Devens last night where he conducted a sing at the Hostess house. He assembled about 400 voices for a chorus, and the program was thoroughly enjoyed by all participating. The doughboys went at the various musical numbers with a vim, and made the work of directing one of much pleasure for Mr. Brown.

YANKS DOWNED 473 HUN MACHINES LAST MONTH

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—(By the Associated Press) From September 13, to 11 o'clock on the morning of November 11, American aviators believe they brought down 473 German machines. Of this number 333 already have been condemned officially. Day bombing groups dropped a total of 118,515 kilograms of bombs within the German lines.

Bombing operations were begun in August by the 94th squadron, which in five flying days dropped 1,650 kilograms of bombs. The first day bombardment group began work in September, the group including the 94th, the 20th and 11th squadrons. The 168th squadron joined the group in November.

In 12 flying days in September, the bombers dropped 31,826 kilograms of bombs; in 15 flying days in October

Except for Sunday and one or two other days the American aviators had unfavorable flying weather during the week previous to the signing of the armistice.

Many spectacular flights were planned for 11 o'clock Monday and just before that hour, but a heavy mist on the entire front prevented all but a few planes from venturing forth. One of those who went out was Capt. Edward Rickenbacker, but the mist compelled him to turn back when he reached Verdun.

URGES MODIFICATIONS OF ARMISTICE TERMS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Austria has asked President Wilson to use his good offices with the allies to secure a modification of the Turkish armistice terms so as to permit several thousand former Austro-Hungarian subjects now in Ottoman territory to remain there instead of returning home to add to already serious food problems.

TO FURTHER CURTAIL DRAFT WORK

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Orders further curtailing operation of the national machinery of draft boards are to be issued shortly by Provost Marshal General Crowder. Stoppage of all physical examinations in connection with the classification of 18-year-old registrants is likely on the ground that the results obtained will be of little value in six months on account of the physical changes undergone by many maturing youths.

N. E. WAR WORK FUND TOTAL $8,049,357

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—New England was nearly $2,000,000 behind in the United War Work campaign today. In announcing a total to date of $8,049,357 the committee said that it had looked for contributions to reach $11,000,000 by this time, and that efforts must be redoubled.

Contributions in Massachusetts totalled $4,714,000 less than half which it was figured should have been reported at this stage of the campaign. Other states' totals were: Connecticut, $1,558,400; Maine, $609,000; Rhode Island, $141,518; Vermont, $359,516; New Hampshire, $335,500.

FASTEST SPEED UP CONTRIBUTIONS TO WAR WORK FUND TO REACH QUOTA

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—With $21,537,572 subscribed at noon today, the country was far behind the record set for the progress of the United War Work campaign. National headquarters declares that more than $10,000,000 a day must be given from now until Monday night if $350,000,000 which has been set as the goal in view of increased appropriations necessitated by the prospective period of reconstruction, is to be reached. Returns from 15 states and Hawaii increased last night's total by $8,234,383.

They are having a chance to study history at first-hand now, and they are going to have a chance to study lots of other things—from cooking to carpentry, from electricity to economics, from tailoring to telegraphy, from art to agriculture.

That's going to be the big job of these United War Work organizations now that peace has come.

Under the direction of the Army, plans have been worked out to let our fighters go to school—to give men vocational and technical training that will fit them to earn more when they return than they did before they left—to open up the English and French universities for higher education—to organize correspondence courses so that however isolated a man may be, he can benefit by these advantages.

While they are right on the ground they will be able to visit places where European history has been made.

Instructors will be drawn from the Army and a thousand civilians are sailing for France to supplement the mighty force of educators now in France.

This is but one phase of the plans for demobilization—to make the change from military back to civil life a period of profit for our fighters. It is only one reason for you to give more than you thought you would, for the work of these organizations will never cease until the last of our fighters is safely back at home.

Why you should give twice as much as you ever gave before!

The need is for the sum 70 per cent. greater than any gift ever asked for since the war began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000.

By giving to these seven organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their

QUESTION OF COLONIES

The Manchester Guardian, a paper of great prominence in England, brings up the question of the attitude of the United States in reference to the colonies of Germany and it asks indirectly if the time is not coming "when America will reconsider her attitude in regard to undertaking territorial obligations in the backward regions of the earth."

That inquiry seems to indicate that the German colonies may become a bone of contention in the peace conference. We are not aware that the United States ever assumed the attitude of seeking colonies in backward regions of the earth or in any other regions.

This remark, we presume, is based upon our possession of the Philippine Islands, which came to us very unexpectedly as a result of the Spanish-American war. We did not seek the Philippines and to show that we do not intend to cling to them beyond the point of offering them due protection, it may be remarked that we have already given them self-government, and are training them for complete independence if they desire to assume any such responsibility in the near future.

As for the German colonies in Africa, the United States has no desire to assume control over any of them; but it has a desire to see that their welfare be properly safeguarded same as that of the other subject nationalities.

It may shed some light on the subject brought up by the English paper if we quote what President Wilson said when he read the terms of the armistice to congress. After reading the document which marked the end of German militarism, the president said: "Stern justice must not be without mercy. The peace settlement to come must be one of disinterested justice based upon something much better and much more lasting than the selfish competitive interests of powerful states."

England holds the German colonies and no doubt she will be permitted to hold them unless the colonies themselves appear to select a different allegiance, a privilege which we understand is to be given to subject nationalities if President Wilson's recommendations be followed.

THE HIGH SCHOOL PROBLEM

It appears that the municipal council has taken preliminary steps for the sale of the stool purchased for the new high school.

This stool cut to lengths and angled in accordance with certain plans cannot be sold except at a very serious loss. The question of what should be done with the stool and with the whole proposition of building a new high school, is one of such proportions that it should be placed in the hands of a commission fully competent to deal with it in a manner that will best protect the interests of the city.

The original idea was that the high school should be built under the supervision of a commission of citizens. Such a commission was appointed, but as a result of legal technicalities in the method of its election, it has been adjudged illegal and, therefore, removed from office.

It would seem that in order to have this high school problem properly disposed of, a new high school commission should be appointed with full power to construct the building, on the plans already adopted or on such other plans as it might see fit to devise. There is no doubt that it must be provided in the near future; and for this reason, it would be well in our opinion to turn the whole matter over to a high school commission made up of competent men whose solution of the problem would be accepted by the community as the best possible.

We do not believe that the municipal council, influenced as it is by political considerations, can be relied upon to take up this work at the present stage and carry it through with the economy and efficiency that might be expected from a commission of business men who have had experience in such building projects.

The high school project is a pretty bad mess at best, but if the city is to be saved from getting more deeply involved in debt and responsibility, that object can be attained only through a high school commission made up of men whose experience, integrity and standing in the community would at once command public confidence.

BELGIAN INDEPENDENCE

It is announced that Belgium will no longer be satisfied with anything less than absolute independence. She will no longer desire to remain a nation of guaranteed neutrality. She has learned to her sorrow what that kind of guarantee amounts to, and she will have no more of it. More power to little Belgium! Harsh indeed would be the peace council that would deny her complete independence after having suffered so much under the heel of German militarism and after having sacrificed all for the cause of freedom, honor and justice. She held the lions long enough to allow England and France to wake up to the situation and but for her heroism in so doing the invaders then in the zenith of their power might have reached Paris. Belgium will be given her freedom and as much in addition as the allies can secure for her towards making reparation for all she has suffered and for the priceless sacrifices she has made during the war in the cause of world freedom.

VICTORY DAY

It has been proposed that in this state Thanksgiving should be observed hereafter on November 11, and that this date should be made a general holiday throughout the nation that fought against the central powers in the great war. There is no doubt that November 11 will stand out in the history of the world as does the Declaration of Independence in American history; and for this reason in addition to our part in the war, it might well be observed as a holiday. But in Massachusetts we have already gone the limit on holidays and if we are to observe November 11 as a holiday, we should abolish Thanksgiving or have it merged with November 11, which marks the overthrow of militarism in Europe and the greatest victory for world freedom recorded in all history. The new holiday might well be named "Victory day."

The patriotism of that big group of workers employed at the plant of the General Electric company over at Pittsfield doesn't shine particularly glistening when we read that, reporting for work Tuesday morning they were told the day had been declared a state holiday and they retorted they would not work unless they received time and a half pay. Being refused, they went down town to destroy property and create the worst "rough house" kind of a celebration. Pittsfield has known for years. Too bad they didn't avail themselves of the chance to get at the Huns.

In connection with Dr. Solf of Germany asking President Wilson to extend mercy to the Germans, the president could, if he wanted to, reply: "Your people have apparently not known anything about the quality of mercy until such time as they have had to actually ask for it and probably now, they know so little about it they will not know whether much or little mercy is given them." The Germans will not be allowed to starve, however.

Of course there are all kinds of ways of celebrating a great event like the signing of the armistice terms but when most of us have all we can do to save up for a "lid," whether for man or woman, the report that in Boston Tuesday evening the jubilant crowds insisted on smashing up hats worn by all the men and women in the crowds, makes us believe that we would as lief not have a part in that kind of a celebration.

Absolutely the only regrettable thing in connection with that great civic parade here Tuesday afternoon, said to have been the greatest of its kind ever held in Lowell, was the fact that organized labor was not represented. It is true that the labor people had a parade of their own in the forenoon but the crowds along the parade route would have liked a chance to cheer some union men.

Here's a man to admire! The Rev. John de Valles, sent to France as an aid in the Knights of Columbus work, said recently good naturedly: "I've done everything in this outfit from shaving men to unspiring ball games and refereeing boxing bouts for them." A variety of tasks for the good parish priest yet who will doubt that he gave satisfaction in all cases.

If the former crown prince had been quickly killed by a bullet from a German soldier's gun, it might be noted that a measure of mercy was dealt him in that he was not crucified or tortured by having his limbs cut off before he was killed, acts which his soldiers perpetrated under inspiration of no other than the crown prince and his father.

The food administration has requested that the function known as "afternoon tea" be abandoned as a food conservation measure. It's a wonder this request wasn't forthcoming sooner. No one will feel it much of a deprivation to be denied "tea and cakes" in the middle of the afternoon. Let the proverbial "Apple a day keeps the doctor away" take their place.

We needn't remind Hen. Ford that he may be consulted for losing Michigan's U. S. senatorship, by the fact that the war industries board will now let him start making airplanes again as fast as he wants to. Hen. didn't act as if the governorship would put him up very much if he had won it. He refused to spend our money to secure election, which in face of large expenditures by the republican candidate helped to defeat him.

Now comes the question, is it to be supposed that when the old United Press, with its news-as-you'd-like-it, or some other service springs that yarn, as it will seem, to the effect that American soldiers are busy fraternizing with their late enemies, will little bags of salt be passed around for readers to use while taking in the story?

Not the least comforting thing to be able to have in one's mind just now is the fact that if we did our bit by the Red Cross, the Liberty bond campaigns and Thrift Stamps, we can assume some credit for being somewhat responsible for the can being successfully tied to the Kaiser and his gang of baby killers.

Events in Holland which may be expected to occur at almost any time now, will perhaps live up to something written in the bible and which may be interpreted to the case of the Kaiser: "Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming."

No, the victory colors the Textile Color Card association of the United States has just announced, do not include "Prussian yellow," long recognized as Germany's official color.

The report that the king of Saxony has been dethroned is probably the truth and we should not regard it as a Saxon yarn.

Who will make junk of the junkies, the masses of the German people or that section of them calling themselves Bolsheviki?

PUT TO BAYONET

Belgian Boy Refugee Saw His Father, Mother and Baby Brother Slain

He Is Maimed Himself But Happy to Get to This Country

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—All ye peace delegates and plenipotentiaries, give ear to the story of Francois.

He is 10 years old. He must learn all over again the meaning of the word happiness. He never speaks of home in Belgium. His face is torn and scarred by a bomb. He saw his father and mother and baby brother and sister bayoneted by Germans. He is a maimed and broken little remnant of the war with memories only of horror and misery. Francois is a symbol and in the minds of the men who gather around the peace table there will be many like him.

He came here in charge of a naval officer, one of several who are going to see that he has a chance to forget some of the things he has seen. Yesterday he was bathed and clothed in a bright uniform and had cakes and tea with women who petted him and made him laugh as he hadn't laughed for—oh, since ages ago, before the Germans came. And by and by he will go to school and then to college, if he wishes.

Francois's father was a fisherman on a little coast town in Belgium when the war started. His name was Catecloux, and his mother was Marie Catecloux. There was also Jean, 17, and his sister, Mille, who was 23, and the baby twins, Margaret and Jean. Francois played on the sand with the twins and dug sand forts and watched the clumsy boats come drifting in at night with their catches. And then they would all go home and in the little cottage were laughter and happiness.

Then came the war and the hordes of Germany rushed over Belgium and at last reached the village where Francois lived. They swarmed through the streets and Francois, wondering, saw his family driven forth and herded with other frightened and ruined old men, women and children. They wandered about the countryside, living in caves or cellars of abandoned houses, any place where they might huddle together out of sight of the despoilers.

Aerial Bomb Wounds Him

For a year they lived this way until one day, while Francois was out, trouble started in the village where they had found a temporary refuge. The Germans were let loose on the people. An airplane hovered over a group of the refugees and wantonly dropped a bomb. A piece of it tore into the side of Francois's face, leaving him lying on the ground. When, half mad with terror and pain, he woke up, he ran to the little hut where his family had been.

The door was open and as he looked in he saw ten German soldiers. They pierced his father with bayonets and as his mother fought desperately to defend him ran her through. One of the baby twins was lying bleeding under a bed, the other lay wounded in a corner. Little Francois turned, and sobbing with pain and grief, ran down to the beach where he found a boat and pushed off.

Then he thinks he went to sleep, for when he knew any more he was some distance off shore and his face hurt him terribly, but there was no water in the boat, and after a time he was hungry, but there was no food. The boat drifted out and south for a day and a night and early the second morning the lookout on a transport saw the tiny figure curled up in the stern of the bobbing craft.

They took him into Brast and put him in a hospital, where busy doctors and nurses found time to attempt to cheer up the little refugee. When he was well, after six months, the hospital people tried to get someone to take care of him, but nobody wanted to be bothered by a boy whose face was so mutilated. They saw only the face, not the loneliness of the sturdy little soul beneath. And so the hospital people, burdened with wounded soldiers, gave Francois some clothes and told him he would have to find his own way.

He Finds a Friend

Francois wandered down to the docks and there found a friend, a jolly faced little pup, whose ancestry was all mixed up. But the quality of friendship in him was as straight as the look of his eye, and when he

The Danger of Imitations.

AN OHIO druggist writes to "The Practical Druggist," a prominent New York Drug Journal, as follows: "Please furnish formula for Castoria. All the formulas I have worked with are either ineffective or disagreeable to administer."

To this "The Practical Druggist" replies: "We do not supply formulas for proprietary articles. We couldn't if we wanted to. Your experience with imitative formulas is not surprising, but just what is to be expected. When Castoria is wanted, why not supply the genuine. If you make a substitute, it is not fair or right to label it Castoria. We can give you all sorts of laxative preparations for children, but not Castoria, and we think a mother who asks for Castoria would not feel kindly toward you if you gave her your own product under such a name."

No mother with a spark of affection for her child will overlook the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher when buying Castoria.

reached out a pink tongue and licked the boy's hand and danced a bit to show how worth while he was Francois just sat down and put his arms around him.

The boy and the dog lived around the docks, picking up what bits of food they could find, sometimes getting a meal from sailors on the transports. At night they shared a corner among the piles of war stuff and kept each other warm. Francois got a bit of rope and looped it about the dog's neck, although nothing could have separated them.

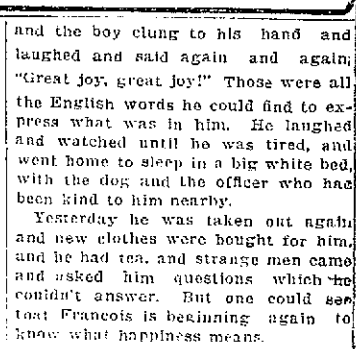

It was this way that a big hearted sailor from an American ship found them one day, when Brast had grown into one of the huge debarkation ports of France. He took Francois on board his ship and fed him, and the officer got interested in the ragged youngster with the devoted friend. Bit by bit they got his story, and then gathered to talk over what should be done with this engaging waif. They couldn't leave him there, he seemed to them such a perfect little representative of all they had come to relieve.

They decided finally to send him back to America, to give him a home, to see that he was cared for and taught that there are good things in the world. That is why Francois came to New York with an officer who will not let his name be used because he says he is only one of many who like Francois.

Shining Bathing Amazes Him

The officer went to the B.D. mart, where Francois's eyes opened wide at the sight of a big bathtub, white and clean, and full of clear water. He hardly dared get into it, it seemed so clean, and the officer had to roll up his sleeves and show Francois the delight of a good tub.

FROM WAR TO PEACE

President Wilson's Appointment of Board to Solve the Problem

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—President Wilson is understood to be considering the appointment of a reconstruction commission to lay down the broad lines under which the nation would be converted from a war to peace basis. It would act largely as an advisory body. Executive functions would be in the hands of departments and agencies now in operation.

KING GEORGE THANKS WILSON AND AMERICA

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(British Wireless Service)—King George, on the signing of the armistice, sent a message of congratulation to the people of the United States for their aid in the war. President Wilson replied, expressing warm appreciation. The king's message follows:

"At this moment of universal gladness I send you, Mr. President, and the people of your great republic, a message of congratulation and deep thanks in my own name and that of the people of this empire."

"It is, indeed, a matter of solemn thanksgiving that the peoples of our two countries, akin in spirit as in speech, should today be united in this greatest of democracy's achievements. I thank you and the people of the United States for the high and noble part which you have played in this glorious chapter of history and freedom."

President Wilson's cablegram to King George follows:

"Your generous and gracious message is most warmly appreciated, and you may rest assured that our hearts on this side of the Atlantic are the more completely filled with joy and satisfaction because we know the great partnership of interests and of sentiments to which we belong."

"We are happy to be associated in this time of triumph with the government and people upon whom we are so sure we can count for co-operation in the delicate and difficult tasks which remain to be performed in order that the high purposes of the war may be realized and established in the reign of equitable justice and lasting peace."

Messages of felicitation have been exchanged between Josephus Daniels, secretary of the American navy, and Sir Eric Geddes, First Lord of the British Admiralty.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, dizziness and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a diseased liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "drowsy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

PROTEST FROM GERMANS

Declaration Objects to Some of the Terms Agreed Upon by the Envoys

PARIS, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—A declaration sent to the French government early this week, by the German delegation which signed the armistice has been published here. It protested against some of the terms agreed to by the Germans and to which they objected verbally at their first meeting with Marshal Foch. The declaration reads:

"The German government will naturally make every effort to aid in the carrying out of the obligations imposed upon it. Its plenipotentiaries recognize that on certain points a conciliatory spirit has been shown toward their suggestions. They can, consequently, consider the observations which they submitted on Nov. 9, referring to conditions of the armistice, and the reply they received on Nov. 10 as forming an integral part of the complete convention."

"They cannot, however, permit any doubt to exist on the fact that the shortness of the delay fixed for evacuation and the handing over of indispensable means of transport threatens to provoke a state of affairs which, without the German government and people being at fault, may render the execution of the conditions of the armistice impossible."

"The plenipotentiaries further consider it their duty referring to their reiterated verbal and written declarations, to state once more with the utmost energy that the execution of this convention must throw the German people into anarchy and famine."

"After the public manifestations which preceded the laying down of the armistice, conditions might have been expected which, while giving opportunity for full military security, would have put an end to the sufferings of non-combatant women and children. The German people, which for 30 months has held out against a world of enemies, will maintain its dignity and unity despite every violence."

PRINCE HENRY OF PRUSSIA IN ACCORD WITH NEW GERMAN GOVERNMENT

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 14.—Prince Henry of Prussia has been discovered at the castle owned by Duke Friedrich Ferdinand of Schleswig-Holstein, at Eskenforde, according to dispatches received here. He declares himself in accord with the new regime in Germany.

CONFLICTING RUMORS FROM BRUSSELS

GIJNET, Tuesday, Nov. 12.—Conflicting rumors as to the situation in Brussels reached this city. Reports are current that German soldiers there have captured and shot their officers, are burning and pillaging the city. Belgian advance scouts are now half way from Ghent to Brussels. THE MOST DANGEROUS DISEASE

No organs of the human body are so important to health and long life as the kidneys. When they slow up and commence to lag in their duties, look out! Danger is in sight.
Find out what the trouble is—without delay. Whenever you feel nervous, weak, dizzy, suffer from sleeplessness, or have pains in the back or difficulty in passing urine—wake up at once. Your kidneys need help. These are signs to warn you that your kidneys are not performing their functions properly. They are only half doing their work and are allowing impurities to accumulate and be converted into uric acid and other poisons, which are causing you distress and will destroy you unless they are driven from your system.

OUR CASUALTIES

Officials Estimate That Total American Losses Will Not Exceed 100,000

Reports to Date Show 71,390 Killed, Wounded or Missing in Action

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Officials estimate that the total casualties of the American Expeditionary Forces in the war will not exceed 100,000, including the men killed in action, wounded, died of wounds, disease and accidents and the missing. Some of those who have been missing probably will be accounted for when the prisoners are returned from Germany.

It was said yesterday that it probably will be several weeks before the record of casualties can be completed. It is regarded as almost certain that many of the casualties in the recent heavy fighting by the First and Second American armies have not yet been reported.

Lists also must be compiled of unreported American casualties in British and French hospitals, especially from among the United States forces bigated with allied units. Deaths from wounds also probably will be reported for some time, while lists of slightly wounded being sent by couriers may be delayed.

The daily lists for several days have consisted of approximately 1100 names daily. Sec. Baker has indicated that a considerable number of reported casualties remain to be given out, but that these will be released as rapidly as newspapers can handle them.

An unofficial tabulation of published casualty lists, including those of Nov. 12, shows a grand total of 71,390 men. Careful estimates made yesterday, based on knowledge of the battle conditions faced by the First and Second armies in the days immediately preceding cessation of hostilities and on ten average lists heretofore, lead officers to believe that all unreported and unreported casualties will not exceed 30,000.

Estimates based on previous records fix the total Marine casualties in France at less than 5000.

EDUCATIONAL PROBLEMS

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—Representatives of the state department of education in the six New England states met in this city today to confer on educational problems developing from war conditions. Enactment of legislation for the improvement of educational systems and the teacher shortage had important places on the program. A proposed act creating a federal department of education and new training schools to be opened in 1920 was advocated.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double Its Beauty at Once.

Save Your Hair! Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderrine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderrine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderrine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. Danderrine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming, lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a bottle of Danderrine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

Was Constipated and a Nervous Wreck

Bed-fast Four Months. Now
Up and Gaining in Flesh

"Four months ago I was bed-fast. I was badly constipated, suffered continually from chills and fever, and was always taking cold, until my nervous system was completely wrecked. I suffered with neuralgia, pains around my head, soreness all through my chest and pains under my shoulder blades."

"It is all gone now. I am on my feet and doing my own cooking, and gaining in flesh right along. Milk's Emulsion has certainly worked wonders for me."—Mrs. Frank Rhoderick, R. R. 26, Decker, Ind.

Constipation is the mother of a large family of diseases. The whole system is clogged and weakened. Salts and physics give only temporary relief and usually aggravate the trouble.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a powerful medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

"This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children."

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Fred Howard.—Adv.

IRISH HOME RULE

Lloyd George Says That it
Is Essential—No Coercion
of Ulster

Premier Outlines Reconstruction Policies—League of Nations Favored

LONDON, Nov. 14.—At a meeting of 200 leading coalition liberal peers and commoners yesterday, Premier Lloyd George outlined his reconstruction policy, saying the victory must be utilized as an impetus to reforms.

A great rehousing program is necessary, he said, the hours of labor must be reduced, a minimum wage introduced and production increased through land reform.

The prime minister also foreshadowed a large development in transport, and said that there is value in the prevailing revolutionary spirit, if wisely directed.

It must be combated by national unity, co-operation and sacrifice. He said he feared neither revolution nor Bolshevism, but he did fear reaction and dissension. Mere party considerations are unseemly. He wanted a united government, representing all parties.

In regard to free trade, Mr. Lloyd George said he did not propose to go as far as the Paris resolutions. The third of President Wilson's points, he contended, prevented any idea of an economic war.

Irish home rule is essential, he declared, but there must be no coercion of northeast Ulster.

The premier concluded by stating that the watchword of the government is progress. He said he must have the support of the Liberals.

The meeting unanimously pledged support to Mr. Lloyd George and the coalition government during the period of reconstruction. The premier received a remarkable ovation.

A meeting of the unionist party yesterday voted confidence in Chancellor Bonar Law after the latter had announced that he proposed recommending the continuation of the present coalition government.

Favors League of Nations

The premier, discussing the question of a league of nations said that such a league is more necessary now than ever. He pointed out that the conditions which prevailed in the Balkans before the war were now affecting practically two-thirds of Europe.

"A large number of small nations have been reborn in Europe," he continued, "and these will require a league of nations to protect them against the covetousness of ambitious and grasping neighbors. In my judgment a league of nations is absolutely essential to permanent peace."

"I am looking forward to a condition of things, with the existence of a league of nations, under which conscription will not be necessary in any country."

"One of the principal issues at the forthcoming general election will be the nature of the peace settlement. It will mean the settlement of the world."

Premier Lloyd George made this announcement in an address to his liberal supporters on Nov. 11.

It is the duty of liberalism to use its influence to insure that there shall be a reign of peace, he said, adding:

"What are conditions of peace? They must lead to a settlement which will be fundamentally just. No settlement that contravenes the principles of eternal justice can be a permanent one. We must not allow any sense of revenge, any spirit of greed, any grasping desire to override the fundamental principles of righteousness."

"The mandate of this government at the forthcoming election will mean that the British delegation of the peace congress will be in favor of a just peace."

ALLEGED SPY CAUGHT AT CAMP
DEVENS MAY PAY THE

DEATH PENALTY

CAMP DEVENS, Nov. 14.—An element of mystery has entered into the case of Private Pressly H. Stringfellow of B Company, 212th Field Signal Battalion, who was arrested Monday night in the act of tapping the confidential telegraph wire from division headquarters. The mystery centres around the identity of the two civilians with Stringfellow when he was caught. The authorities refused to give the names of the two men. It was stated that their cases would be handled by the proper authorities in Boston.

In the meanwhile Stringfellow is being held in the camp guardhouse. A conference was held yesterday to decide what charges shall be placed against him. It is learned on good authority that an attempt to try him for the violation of the 52d article of war will be made. The 52d article of war reads:

"Any person who, in time of war, shall be found lurking or acting as a spy in or about any of the fortifications, posts, quarters or encampments of any of the armies of the United States, or elsewhere, shall be tried by a general court-martial, or by a military commission, and shall, on conviction thereof, suffer death."

The article provides for no other sentence. The death penalty can be mitigated only by order of the president.

Infantry Commissions

The men who were named as candidates for infantry commissions at the Central Officers' Training school at Camp Grant, Ill., are still here, although order for their transfer stated they were to report to Camp Grant, Ill., on Nov. 14. Orders received from Washington yesterday stopped the transfer of various men out of the camp, but in a subsequent order published yesterday, a white development battalion of 1000 men is ordered to Camp Wheeler, Ga.

Meanwhile the training of the 12th Division goes on just the same, and men are learning to don their gas masks in six seconds and to throw grenades, etc., just as they were last year. No one seems to know just what to expect.

Corp. Butler, Sentenced

Corp. Clarence T. Butler of A Company, 15th Infantry, who posed as an overseas veteran in Fitchburg some time ago, was sentenced to serve one year at hard labor at Fort Jay, N. Y., and to be dishonorably discharged from the service. His home is at Tulsa, Ok.

The United War Work campaign is on at this camp. Second Lieut. William M. Blair of the Third Training Battalion is camp campaign officer. Arrangements have been made for subscriptions either in cash or pledges to be paid next payday. The men will not be urged to give. They will simply be given the opportunity to do so if they so desire.

Their demand was for wages at the rate of $5 per day, but Mayor Thompson refused to grant an increase, stating that the funds of the department at the present time of the fiscal year did not warrant an increase being given.

UP TO THE GERMAN NAVY

Provisioning of Russia and Central Powers Hinges on Disarmament of Fleet

LONDON, Wednesday, Nov. 13.—Problems connected with the provisioning of Russia and the central powers hinge primarily upon the immediate disarmament of the German fleet, the Russian warships held by the Germans and those under control of the Ukrainian government in the Black sea. Warships which are held by the Bolsheviks in the Finnish gulf must also be put out of commission.

Without the freedom of movement in the Black and Baltic seas, the entente powers and the United States will have great difficulty in affording economic relief to central Europe as well as Scandinavia. Consequently, the attitude of the German navy toward the armistice terms is watched with eagerness by entente officials, who are anxious to prevent starvation among the beleaguered cities of central Europe.

Special and economic conditions among the suffering millions. Speedy action is necessary for the relief of regions adjacent to the Baltic sea, as many of its ports will be ice-bound within two months and the congested and disrupted condition of the railways makes relief by land routes uncertain. The United States and the entente powers have shown no disposition to deal with the Bolshevik government. While Russia remains in the control of the soviet, therefore, there seems to be little hope of feeding Moscow, Petrograd and other large cities there.

If the Russian bolshevik movement, which has been started against Finland, should be successful, Finland would also be placed temporarily beyond relief. Food conditions are more favorable in Ukraine and in the Caucasus regions, where there is much grain stored and which the peasants would quickly sell if offered manufactured goods or money with reasonable buying power.

RED BLOODED
MEN WIN OUT

They Are Always on Top
In Every Walk of Life

It is a fact that red blooded men and women are at the top in every walk of life. Men and women with the driving force of red blood, rich in iron and phosphates do things, they get results.

Red blooded women are the heads of the happiest and most contented homes, they have the will and the desire to be real companions and helpmates.

Leadership and happiness is only for the men and women who are willing to keep their blood and nerves strengthened and nourished with iron and phosphates.

A prominent doctor says, "It is a crime that so many men and women lack the rich, red blood and strong steady nerve to achieve their ambitions. It is all the more so because thin, watery blood is unnecessary, as rich, red blood and strong nerves are within the grasp of everyone. Phosphated Iron makes pure blood by making new blood. It gives strength, brings color to the cheeks, increases the weight and appetite, drives away the blues and those sleepless nights, steadies and renews your nervous energy, makes you feel like a live one once again."

There must be something to it. Everyone who tries it is led in praise of Phosphated Iron, and you have got to show people these days.

To insure physicians and their patients receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron, it has been put up in capsules only. Do not allow dealers to give you pills or tablets. Insist on capsules.

EACH WAR WORK BODY
HAS ITS SPECIAL FIELD

(N.E.A. Special to The Sun)

NEW YORK, November.—Work of the Young Men's Christian association and the Knights of Columbus for the welfare of American soldier boys is well known. Of the other organizations which participate in the funds to be raised by the United War Work campaign, less has been printed.

They play a part no less important. Their service will be as valuable during the months of demobilization and the period of policing Europe as the two first mentioned.

Relaxation and idleness for the greater portion of our armies follow the end of the fighting. The recreational, educational and inspirational work of these organizations is as essential to this period as to the period of warfare.

Five organizations supplement the work of the Y.M.C.A. and the Knights of Columbus. They are the Jewish Welfare board, the War Camp Community service, the American Library association, the Salvation Army and the Y.W.C.A.

The Jewish Welfare board—this organization has erected welfare buildings in camps with auditorium, rest room and writing room, libraries with English, Yiddish and Hebrew literature, victrolas and pianos and trained welfare workers. It conducts religious services each Friday evening and on holidays and special days. It distributes supplies and provides entertainment and recreation. It has more than 200 workers and more than 60 buildings, and others planned. Its work has the hearty personal endorsement of the secretary of war.

War Camp Community Service. As an information bureau for soldiers and sailors and their friends, it fills a great need. It operates hotels and lodging houses and lunch rooms for men in uniform. It originated the "take-a-soldier-or-a-sailor-home-to-dinner" movement. Athletics, the amusements campaign, social hygiene, vice repression are some of its activities. Its budget provides, from each dollar, 37 cents for general administration and operation in 312 camp communities in the United States, nine cents for special activities among colored soldiers and sailors, three and a half cents for special housing for enlisted men

Helping American
Producers Bring
YOU Their Best

LIVESTOCK growers of the Corn Belt—fruit ranchers of the Northwest—dairymen and poultry raisers of our great central farming country—vegetable and truck farmers of America's rich-soil regions—fishermen of ocean and inland waters—all these and many more find a market for their products through local dealers.

Their yield is brought to your grocery or market through the local Armour Branch House. And because the country is dotted with over 400 such Branch Houses, every part of the country has its choice of America's best foods. You, for example, are not restricted to the varieties this particular section produces.

That this system of bringing producer and consumer together is economically right, is proved by our long establishment here and elsewhere. Engaged in the most competitive of industries, our service must give satisfaction or we could not continue to exist.

Never so much as since the war began has the wisdom of Armour and Company operating their own Branch Houses been so apparent. Today, with more than one-third of our entire output devoted to war needs, we are still able to supply to every community its fair proportion of our available foods, and to distribute so farmers have markets that encourage them to increase production.

When you buy from a meat dealer or grocer who deals with our local Branch House, the Armour products you get are of the best of the national supply allotted to civilian use.

American Library association.—This organization sees to it that thousands of volumes of good literature are placed where the men in the service can get them. Fiction, technical, historical and every other type of book that an American might find in a public library at home is provided.

Salvation Army.—High praise has been given this religious body, strictly non-sectarian, for the manner in which it has gone into the trenches with the boys and ministered to them, regardless of danger. The coffee and doughnuts of the Salvation Army will be a pleasant memory to American veterans so long as they live. The army is operating 561 hutments, dugouts, hotels or rest rooms. It has 521 officers in this service. It has 10 chaplains serving under government appointment. It has 20,000 members and adherents in various branches of active service. It has supplied 44 ambulances for service with the allies.

Y. W. C. A.—These self-sacrificing young women are adding in canteens, conducting soup kitchens, ministering to the nurses of the allied armies and in many ways doing their bit back of the fighting front.

RULES GOVERNING USE OF ARTIFICIAL LIGHT

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—The use of artificial light for the illumination or display of outside advertising signs and the external ornamentation of buildings is unconditionally prohibited on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week by the new federal regulations, which become operative this week and have been communicated to all local fuel committees in Massachusetts by James T. Storrow, federal fuel administrator for New England.

Reports to the fuel administration indicate that in Boston and some of the other cities of the state this provision of the new order seems to be generally misunderstood. Need to comply with the new regulations makes the offender liable to the penalties of the federal "Lacey act," provided.

The new order which supercedes all former "lightless nights" rules and regulations, prohibits in New England the following:

parks or other public places in any city, village or town.

The use of light for illuminating advertisements or signs, or for the external ornamentation of any building on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, in each week.

The use of light on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday for displaying any shop window when the shop is not open for business.

The chief change in the new regulations from the previous order is with reference to the illumination of store or shop windows. Under the new order the store or shop window lighting is only restricted when the store is closed and then only on the four "lightless nights."

The federal regulations relative to the use of light in connection with advertisements and display of shop windows reads as follows:

"The use of light generated or produced by the use or consumption of coal, oil, gas or other fuel, for illuminating or displaying advertisements, announcements or signs on the exterior of any building, or on any billboard, or other structure for the display of advertisements, announcements or signs, and the use of such light for the external ornamentation of any building or structure, or for illuminating or displaying any window in any shop or store, when such shop or store is not open for business, shall be entirely discontinued on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of each week in New England, and in the states of New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, and in the District of Columbia, and shall be entirely discontinued on Monday and Tuesday of each week in the states of Michigan and Ohio, and in any state not hereinbefore mentioned, when the federal fuel administrator for such state shall so order; provided, however, that nothing in this regulation shall be construed to prohibit maintenance in any shop or store window of any lights required by a state law or a municipal ordinance, or for the purpose of safety."

PERFECT WOMANHOOD

Perfect womanhood depends on perfect health. Beauty and a good disposition both vanish before pain and suffering. A great menace to a woman's happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some functional derangement which soon develops headaches, backache, nervousness and "the blues." For such suffering, women find help in their famous old root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for three generations has been restoring health to women of America.—Adv.

KILLED IN FRANCE

Private Michael Connolly of the 302d Machine Gun battalion has been killed in France, according to a war department despatch recently received by his cousin, Coleman T. Connolly of 40 Agavam street. The Lowell soldier gave up his life on Oct. 9.

Private Connolly went to Camp Devens Oct. 5, 1917, and sailed overseas July 1 of this year. His last letter to his cousin was dated July 31 and he said then that the boys were eager to get into action.

The Lowell soldier was previously employed at the U. S. Cartridge Co. plant. He came to Lowell from Ireland five years ago and was well and favorably known here. PARIS, Nov. 14. (Havas).—Gen. Pershing, in the name of President Wilson, presented at the Military academy yesterday morning, the distinguished service medal to Marshal Joffre, the hero of the Marne. In his address, the American commander-in-chief said:

"This medal is a symbol of our respect for your noble character and of our admiration for the great task you accomplished. Your name will always be associated with the results we have obtained."

Marshal Joffre, in thanking Gen. Pershing, said he was proud of the great distinction which served to draw him still closer to the American army and people. He added:

ANOTHER LOWELL BOY

CITED FOR BRAVERY

For "showing marked gallantry and meritorious service in action," Private Irving J. Loucraft, of this city has been cited by Maj. Gen. Edwards, commander of the 26th division in France.

The Lowell hero has taken a very active part in the fighting since going "over there." Only recently a letter from the war zone told of his participation in a fierce hand-to-hand battle in which he and another Lowell boy took seven Germans.

SERGEANT IRVING J. LOURAFT

On the border, and when Company M was called out for the German war, he was still in his teens.

After being cited Loucraft was promoted to the rank of sergeant. He is the son of Mrs. Charles Loucraft of 5 Colwell avenue, and his mother and his many friends are elated over the part he took in bringing the great war to a successful conclusion.

The official citation received in Lowell yesterday reads as follows: Headquarters 26th Division American Expeditionary Force France, Aug. 31, 1918.

No. 74.
Extract.

1. The division commander takes great pleasure in citing in orders the following named officers and men who have shown marked gallantry and meritorious service in the capture of Torcy, Belleau, Givry, Bourches Woods, Rochet Woods, Hill 190, overlooking Chateau Thierry, Etrepilly, Reuilly, Epieds, Trugny and La Fere Woods to the Jaulgonne-Fec-on-Therroad, during the advance of this division against the enemy from July 19 to 25, 1918, in the second Battle of the Marne.

THE UNITED WAR
WORK CAMPAIGN

BOSTON, Nov. 14.—The United War work campaign will be allowed to use all the light it needs on the "lightless nights," so-called, under a special ruling of the United States fuel administration so long as the light used is not generated by the use of domestic sizes of hard coal.

The rules are suspended, so far as the war work campaign is concerned, until Tuesday, November 19. Information with respect to this special ruling was contained in a wire addressed by United States Fuel Administrator Harry A. Garfield to James J. Storrow, federal fuel administrator for New England, reading as follows:

"United War Work campaign released from all lighting restrictions until November 18th inclusive, provided light is not generated by domestic sizes of anthracite coal."

NORTH BILLERICA

Ends Stubborn Coughs
in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Specially and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be cured, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Any one who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and ready there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a pint of water, put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Either way, the full pint serves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known as the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Tus Sano

Don't neglect a cough or cold. It undermines the system, reducing its power to resist contagious and infectious diseases. Spanish influenza, the grip, etc. TusSano combines wild cherry, licorice and other valuable remedies; is pleasant to take and acts promptly. Sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.—Adv.

and zone abattoirs and rendering establishments should be established where unprofitable and sterile animals could be turned into food, leather, wool, fats and fertilizers to save the waste of food on the farms.

ONLY THINK

"THINKING MAKES 'VICTIMS' OF US ALL, WITH SACRIFICE SO PRECIOUS TO OUR SOULS THAT WOUNDS RESULTING BEAR A VALUE PRICELESS BEYOND THEIR COST."

THEY FIGHT OR it hurts, but who could buy their wounds, they value as their lives?

WE GIVE till it hurts, but who could rob us of the pleasure that it gives: "Our duty nobly done!"

TILL THE BOYS COME BACK we are pledged to back them up. The seven organizations are following, must follow and still stay with them till safe at home again.

GIVE SEVEN-FOLD. Double the efforts. Money from us will provide the care for them—the touch from home TILL THEY COME HOME.
